Virginia Housing Announces New Board of Commissioner

RICHMOND, VA – Virginia Housing recently announced Nathan (Nate) Shultz of Alexandria as a new board member for the Virginia Housing Board of Commissioners.

“We are pleased to welcome Nate as the newest commissioner for Virginia Housing,” said Virginia Housing CEO Tammy Neale. “His extensive background in housing and finance will further advance our mission to expand affordable housing opportunities and strengthen communities across Virginia.”

Shultz is a housing and mortgage finance policy expert and practitioner. In his current role at Potomac Partners LLC, he provides consulting services to a broad array of housing, mortgage finance and policy organizations, assisting them with strategy, regulatory compliance, and product and program design. Previously, he was Vice President of Single-Family Affordable Strategy and Policy at Freddie Mac, and he served at the U.S. Department of Housing and Urban Development (HUD) as the Chief of Staff for the Office of Housing and Federal Housing Administration (FHA). Shultz holds a Bachelor of Arts from Colorado Christian University and a Master of Public Administration from the University of Colorado.
